

30 SECOND FILM

(CAN YOU TELL A STORY IN 30 SECONDS?)

30 Second Film Assignment Criteria:

- A. The 30 Second film must be 30 seconds or less including the title & credits.
- B. Work with a group, or independently.
- C. The story should be clear and well composed from beginning to the end.
- D. The story should be unique and demonstrate an understanding of camera techniques.
- E. The film should be original in its delivery, moving beyond the comfort zone of student filmmaking.
- F. Turn in a rational, storyboard, and youtube link to Ms. St Clair no later than _____.
- G. Films must be submitted in the following formats: mov, mp4, m4v (.wmv files will not be accepted)
- H. Do not infringe on copyright law. Written consent must be obtained in order to use any material not generated by the production team, including music.

